ALPHA BETA ELDER SOCIETY IS FORMED! NEW LEADERSHIP DOES GREAT JOB

Graduates from the Alpha Beta chapter of Zeta Psi have formed an elder society. This occurred on March 11th at the Zeta Psi house during a general convocation of Alpha Beta alumni. The purpose of this elder society is to plan and coordinate social events on behalf of all Alpha Beta alumni.

The elder society hopes that all Alpha Beta alumni--- irrespective of their age, occupation, or background-- will find these events interesting, worthwhile, and easy to attend.

The elder society has taken pains to make information about these events accessible to the general Zete population. One, it has established a web-site at mazp.org which clearly advertises its meetings and upcoming gatherings. This web-site owes its excellence largely to Yoav Rogovin. He has maintained this site for years. Two, the elder society has established an in-house publication "Moose Call" which reaches the e-mail boxes of all internet friendly Zetes. It has elected a president (Chad West), a Vice-president (John Zelinsky), and a treasurer (Dan Rogovin). These men are intelligent, dedicated men...men willing to listen and open to new ideas. Four, the elder society, under chair Kevin Lampone, is currently updating the membership roster. The goal of an updated roster is to reach alumni who have been away from the fraternity for a while. The elder society has not instituted these events to serve itself. All its operations have the sole mission of serving you and the common brotherhood.

Please take a moment to thank Tim Kennedy, Yoav Rogovin and the above mentioned Zete elders for their hard work on everyone's behalf. They are doing a great job. Also, make it a point to make an elder event. You are always welcome.
